Thibaud Hug de Larauze is a French businessman and entrepreneur. He is the chief executive officer & Co-Founder (with Quentin Le Brouster and Vianney Vaute) of a company called Back Market. Mr. de Larauze has built the startup and helped it to gain traction in the marketing industry with relevant products that put it on the radar of investors and enterprises that could benefit from the products and services it provides. The company specializes in providing an online environment for marketing refurbished electronics.

Thibaud Hug de Larauze is on his second company currently. He also co-founded another company that is called Jung. Jung is an online marketplace for refurbished electronics, like Back Market. He and his partner Quentin Le Brouster went together on the venture to launch a site where people could buy and sell electronics that have been refurbished.
